The conference program is structured for committed Defense Investors, Sr. Industry Management, DoD Officials, and Congressional Staff. The Conference is fully-open to the public. There is no charge to attend, but you must pre-register because space is limited.

Please email jmcaleese@mcaleese.com to register.

A full agenda, outlining additional confirmed speakers & times, is forthcoming.

DoD's January 31, 2018 Guidance, ("Department of Defense Senior Leader Attendance at Outside Events"), limits travel & attendance at "outside events", unless circumstances warrant greater participation. McAleese has specifically-structured the 9th annual "Defense Programs" Conference, as a widely-attended-gathering-in-the-local-area, (5 CFR 2635.204(g)). There are 325-350 attendees. It is being held less than ten-minutes from the Pentagon. It is fully-open to the public. McAleese always holds the annual Conference free-of-charge to all attendees. McAleese has carefully-deconflicted each of the DoD & Congressional Speakers, to minimize disruption to Sr. DoD Leadership. This will be a strong platform in support of our Warfighters.
